Present: Erica Caracoglia, Brian Busch, Tabitha Miller, Vickie Murphy, Ryal Watkins, Daniel Price, Marty Flynn, Billy Barber, Deboria Outlaw

1. Minutes from April 12th
 - Dr. Busch made a motion to approve the minutes and Nathan Mizelle seconded.
 - Minutes approved by all.
2. Early Childhood Education Program Review – Deboria Outlaw
 - Deboria discussed immediate and long-term needs, recruitment, and planned credential changes. See the program review document for in-depth notes.
 - Program available 100% online. Benefits student population because many are working full-time and can't get to campus.
 - Headcount and FTE holding steady.
 - Bringing on several new certificate options to meet workforce needs.
 - Potential at state level for students to "test-out" of EDU 119 to earn North Carolina Early Childhood Credential. Could have big impact on FTE from that class.
3. EMS Program Review – due to scheduling issues, the EMS review will take place in early 2023FA.
4. When looking at the two proposed academic planning/SLO outcomes document, the committee voted to move forward with MS Word version. This will be deployed, training provided, and utilized in 2023FA.
